

Wednesday Night Fellowship Discussion Guide
Overview of Philippians
8/23/2023

Sermon Summary

On Sunday Pastor Steve started a new series in the book of Philippians. We learned about the historical context of the city of Philippi, the spread of the Gospel to that city, the makeup of the church established there, the literary arrangement of the letter, Paul's motivations for writing the letter, as well as the major themes explored with the letter. As we reflect upon what we learned and consider how to apply it to our lives it will be good for us to work through the spread of the Gospel to that city and draw out application from that evangelistic spread.

Discussion Questions

Acts 16:11–15

¹¹ So, setting sail from Troas, we made a direct voyage to Samothrace, and the following day to Neapolis, ¹² and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city some days. ¹³ And on the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together. ¹⁴ One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul. ¹⁵ And after she was baptized, and her household as well, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay." And she prevailed upon us.

Who is the "we" in v.11?

Is it necessary for missionary work to be done by groups of people? What are the advantages and disadvantages? What are some ways that you could involve others in your missionary endeavors?

Why did Paul go down to the riverside in v.13?

In our situation, what would be an equivalent of going down by the riverside?

Acts 16:16–24

¹⁶ As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners much gain by fortune-telling. ¹⁷ She followed Paul and us, crying out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation." ¹⁸ And this she kept doing for many days. Paul, having become greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour.

¹⁹ But when her owners saw that their hope of gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. ²⁰ And when they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, “These men are Jews, and they are disturbing our city. ²¹ They advocate customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to accept or practice.” ²² The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates tore the garments off them and gave orders to beat them with rods. ²³ And when they had inflicted many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, ordering the jailer to keep them safely. ²⁴ Having received this order, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

Why didn't Paul and his companions address the issue of the demon-possessed girl immediately? What implications does this carry for us?

What are some ways that we might suffer in our Gospel efforts today?

Acts 16:25–34

²⁵ About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them, ²⁶ and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were unfastened. ²⁷ When the jailer woke and saw that the prison doors were open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸ But Paul cried with a loud voice, “Do not harm yourself, for we are all here.” ²⁹ And the jailer called for lights and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before Paul and Silas. ³⁰ Then he brought them out and said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” ³¹ And they said, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.” ³² And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. ³³ And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds; and he was baptized at once, he and all his family. ³⁴ Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God.

Why do you imagine Paul and Silas were able to pray and sing while in prison?

Why didn't Paul and Silas escape from the jail when the earthquake arrived? Would it have been wrong for them to do so?

How can we develop a heart of others?

Who do you know who needs Jesus? Who do you know in whom God appears to be working?
